Good morning, friends! I guess this could be considered my last presidential duty LOL but just wanted to share something Elizabeth noticed with the UFAA website. I am able to recreate this also.

Just wanted to make you aware if you want to forward to whomever supports the website.

I'll send out a final note to the board later today, but thank you, thank you, thank you! I am truly grateful for you!

Go Gators!
James

As I mentioned to you last night, when I do a Google search for UF alumni association it pulls up <https://ufalumni.ufl.edu> as the first result.

"Great people fun events!!" ★★★★★

"They don't answer phones or promptly return"

But when I click on it, it gives me a warning "Your connection is not private. Attackers may be trying to steal your information"

When I select the second option from the initial search <https://www.ufl.edu/alumni-and-friends/> then navigate to UF Alumni Association it takes me to the <https://connect.ufalumni.ufl.edu/membership/join-the-ufaa> page which seem to be legitimate.

I don't know if you think this is something that should be reported to UFAA for their IT to investigate.

Go Gators!
